

Presentation 1- Brief

Title: Reimagining Historical Figures

Objectives:

- To evaluate students' presentation skills in the classroom environment
- To evaluate students' skill to use presentation tools like slides or cards etc.
- To evaluate students' creativity and provide feedback

Brief: This will be an individual presentation. Students will choose a historical figure and reimagine that figure in today's world (their future). They will then be required to create an insightful presentation based on the life of their chosen historical figure and be given the chance to creatively place them in today's world.

Students will be required to present

- 1. Introduction of the Historical Figure (1 slide):
 - A brief introduction to the chosen historical figure.
 - Their background, significance, and historical context.
- 2. Reimagination (1-2 slides):
 - A description of how the historical figure has been reimagined in today's world.
 - Students should explain the transformation and provide reasons for their choice.
 - Consider aspects like their profession, role, and impact on society in the present or future.
- 3. Visual Representation (1-2 slides):
 - Images or illustrations that visually represent the reimagined historical figure.
 - Use images to convey their modern appearance, environment, and activities.
- 4. Challenges and Solutions (1 slide):
 - Discuss any challenges the reimagined figure might face in the modern world.
 - Propose creative solutions or adaptations that address these challenges.
- 5. Impact and Contribution (1 slide):
 - Describe the potential impact and contributions of the reimagined figure to today's society.
 - Discuss how their historical background might influence their actions and decisions.
- 6. Conclusion (1 slide):
 - Summarize the key points of the presentation.
 - Reiterate the significance of reimagining historical figures in gaining a fresh perspective on history and contemporary issues.

NOTE: Presentation time should not exceed 5 minutes. At the 5-minute mark, you will be asked to leave the stage, whether or not the presentation is over.
