NAME: _____ SECTION: _____

ROLL #: _____

Category	Excellent (3 marks)	Good (2 marks)	Needs Improvement (1 mark)
INTRODUCTION	Unique and memorable introduction. It engages the audience immediately and communicates the topic in an impressive manner	General introduction to the topic and the main idea. Somewhat engaging but needs to get creative to hook audience's attention	Introduction is not included or does not make sense which leads to confusion about the purpose and the topic
CONTENT DEVELOPMENT	Content is reflective of in- depth knowledge and rich understanding of the topic. Main points are supported with convincing evidence and examples. Provided accurate explanation of concepts, which made the script impressive.	Content reflects basic understanding of the topic but lacks adequate research. Main points need to be elaborated further with relevant evidence, examples, and descriptions. Script development is inadequate and lacks focus	Content development reflects lack of understanding of the topic. Provided irrelevant or no support. Explanation of concepts was inaccurate or incomplete resulting in an ineffective script which does not achieve any goal.
VISUALS/GRAPHICS	The selected graphics and images are relevant to the topic and contribute to a creative and impactful presentation and enhance key points by adding to the concept explanation.	The selected graphics do not consistently relate to the topic or help communicate different aspects that are under discussion. An effort at creativity is made but is not able to achieve the desired result	There is a lack of graphics or only 1-2 are used which do not relate directly to the given topic. The graphics lack effectiveness and do not enhance the points made in the presentation.
VOLUME & CLARITY	Student uses a clear voice and articulation of words, rhythm and tone is varied, so that all audience members can hear speech.	Student's voice is clear and clearly articulates words, but part of the audience still has some difficulty hearing speech.	Student mumbles no clear articulation, very low voice and does not use any tonal differences. The volume is not appropriate, and

		Tone barely changes.	audience is not clear about the ideas
PACE AND PAUSES	Pace is smooth and conveys enthusiasm/energy to listeners at the right points. Pauses were planned between new ideas and giving listeners time which enhanced the delivery.	Pace is somewhat more even with occasionally being unintentionally too fast/slow and making abrupt pauses.	Pace used is erratic and abruptly changes throughout speech. The pauses are not planned; speaker uses vocal fillers frequently.
VOCABULARY	Presenter mostly uses the specified and varied vocabulary which enhances the effectiveness of the speech.	Presenter somewhat makes use of the specific and varied vocabulary which partially support the effectiveness of the speech and the expression of ideas.	Vocabulary choices are unclear and fail to support the effectiveness of the speech
CONFIDENCE & ATTITUDE	Speaks with enthusiasm, poise and assurance, which keeps the students engaged.	Speaks with some enthusiasm, poise and assurance but is somewhat to attain the audience interest	Speaks with little or no enthusiasm, poise and assurance and is not able to engage the audience interesting their idea
GESTURES, POSTURE AND MOVEMENT	Speaks with gestures that enhanced presentation and made it appear spontaneous and natural. Consistently reinforced meaning. The speaker did not stand behind the podium. Movement of the speaker was fluid and formal. The posture of the speaker is good.	Speaks with use of some appropriate gestures which aided in effective communication however it could be improved and be more consistent. Very little movement from the speaker. The posture is unimpressive as it is stiff and/or nervous.	Speaks with mechanical and/or exaggerated gestures poorly timed and distracting. Poor posture, the speaker does not stand straight, turns back to audience. Remain behind the podium throughout the speech Little or no movement from the speaker

EYE CONTACT	Maintains direct and purposeful eye contact with the audience	Adjusted screen to the eye level. Attempts eye contact but does not keep it focused	Makes very little or no eye contact by looking at the audience
TIME MANAGEMENT	Finished the speech within the prescribed time with appropriate pacing. Effectively managed time for a conclusion as well.	The presentation finished on time but hurried through the speech and made a hasty conclusion to achieve that. Exceeded the time limit by 1 minute	The speech did not finish on time. The presenter went overtime or did not utilize their time well. No time left for conclusion. Exceeded the 5-minute mark by 2 minutes
GRAMMAR	There are no errors in grammar and mechanics	There are 1-2 errors in grammar and mechanics	There are 3-4 errors in grammar and mechanics
FACIAL EXPRESSIONS	Lively face and facial expression, matched the tone of the topic, scanned the audience well	Seemed natural, conversational although slightly nervous &/or uneasy little movement from the speaker	Facial expressions reveal that the speaker is clearly nervous or disinterested. The speaker did not remove their mask.
OVERALL IMPRESSION	Presentation includes all material needed to gain an in-depth understanding of the topic.	Presentation includes most materials needed to gain a good understanding of the material but it lacks 1-2 key elements.	Effort is made to include all the relevant information but even then, 1-2 key elements are missing.

CONCLUSION	Effectively and creatively condensed the idea and signaled the conclusion. The conclusion was impressive and impactful	Conclusion is signaled but main ideas are not effectively condensed. Improvement is required to create impact.	The presentation ended abruptly creating an uncertainty about whether the idea was concluded or not
