

Assignment 3

Student's Name: _____

Roll No: _____

Section: _____

Total Marks: _____/40

Resume Rubric

	Resume should effectively land you an interview. GOOD JOB! (5)	Resume could land an interview (3)	Resume is average, needs improvement to rise to the "top of the stack." (2)	Resume needs significant improvement and would be discarded during screening (1)
Format	This resume fills the page but also is not overcrowded. There are no grammar or spelling errors. This resume could be easily scanned.	This resume almost fills the page but has some uneven white space. There may be a single spelling or grammar error here.	The font and spacing of this resume are not appealing and easily scanned. There are more than one spelling or grammar errors.	This resume is either one-half page or two to three pages long. The font is too big or may be hard to read. There is more white space than words on the page. There are multiple spelling errors.
Education Section	This section is organized, clear, and well defined. It highlights the most pertinent information. This section includes: institution with its location, graduation date, major, degree, study abroad, and any relevant course work.	This section is organized and easy to read. This section includes: institution with its location, graduation date, major, and degree. . Also, "extra" information such as study abroad and course work are not mentioned.	This section is not well organized. Information such as institution with its location, graduation date, and major are included. Degree and GPA are not listed. There is no order to how information is formatted in this section.	This section is missing the most crucial information. Institution is listed without a location. Graduation date is not listed. Major is listed but not degree.
Experience Section	This section is well defined, and information relates to the intended career field. Places of work, location, titles, and dates are included for each position. Descriptions are clear and well marketed in	Descriptions are clear in the form of bullet statements beginning with action verbs. Descriptions are not detailed enough to fully understand what was done. Information does not relate 100 percent to the intended career field.	Descriptions are not in the form of bullets beginning with action verbs. Complete sentences in paragraph form are used to describe previous positions. Places of work are included for each position but not	This section is not well defined, and there is no order to the descriptions of each position. Descriptions are not detailed and offer no illustration of what was done. No locations and dates of employment are listed.

	the form of bullet statements beginning with action verbs. This section could be split into related and other experience.	Places of work, location, titles, and dates are included for each position.	locations, dates, and titles.
Honors/Activities	This section is well organized and easy to understand. Activities and honors are listed and descriptions include skills gained and leadership roles held. Dates of involvement are listed.	This section includes all necessary information but is difficult to follow. Leadership roles within organizations are listed but skills are not defined. Dates of involvement are listed.	This section is missing key information such as leaderships positions held or dates of involvement. Organizations are listed describing the organization, not individual involvement.	This section is missing or contains very little information. Organization titles or dates of involvement are not listed. No descriptions are listed

Cover Letter/E-mail Rubric

	1-Needs Improvement	3-Average	5-Effective
Opening Paragraph State why you are writing, how you learned of the organization or position, why you are interested in this position or company, and your education and basic information about yourself.	Does not identify a specific position, organization and purpose for writing Does not describe interest in, nor brief qualifications for, position and/or organization being pursued Does not use transition sentence to introduce second paragraph	Vague in describing position, organization and/or purpose for writing Inadequately describes interest in, and brief qualifications for, position and/or organization being pursued Weak transition into second paragraph	Identifies positions, organization and purpose Describes interest in, and brief qualifications for, position and organization being pursued Tailored specifically to a position or organization. Uses a transition sentence to effectively introduce second paragraph

Middle Paragraph(s) Present relevant qualifications, experience and skills related to the position/organizations. Must make a connection between your experiences and achievements and the specific job/opportunity you are applying for.	Does not discuss any relevant qualifications. Have not related your skills to the position applied for. Does not state why interested in the position, company, and/or location.	Identifies one of your qualifications, but it is not related to the position at hand. Restates what is on your résumé with minimal additional information. Explains why you are interested in the position but are too vague	Identifies one or two of your strongest qualifications and/or skills and clearly relates how these apply to the job at hand. Explains specifically why you are interested in the position and this type of job, company, and/or location.
Closing Paragraph Wrap-up/action	Does not thank reader Does not express interest in a meeting or conversation	Thank you statement and/or expression of interest for a meeting or conversation needs editing	Thanks reader for considering him/her Expresses interest in a meeting or conversation Includes phone number and/or email (contact information)
Presentation and Format: Visually appealing, proper grammar and spelling, and standardized cover letter format	Does not use business letter format Letter is not addressed properly Contact information does not match résumé Does not use appropriate language/grammar for the position Multiple grammatical and/or spelling error Visually unappealing	Uses business letter format, but elements are incorrect with date and/or addresses and signature section Uses a greeting and addresses a person, but some elements need editing Name and contact information are included at top of letter. Some of the language and grammar is inappropriate for the position and needs editing A few errors Some parts are visually appealing, but other parts can be enhanced	Uses correct business letter format with date and addresses at the top and job seeker signature Uses an appropriate greeting and addresses the correct person and department Uses industry specific language from the job description Is well written and utilizes professional grammar for the position Error free Visually appealing