

Presentation RUBRIC

Name: _____

Roll No. _____

Job Applied for: _____

Section: _____

Date: _____

Marks: _____ /36

	PROFESSIONAL 4	PROFICIENT 3	DEVELOPING 2	INCOMPLETE 0-1
HOOK Who are you? What makes you stand out? What product/service and idea are you pitching about?	Creative introduction which makes the participant memorable. Includes all information.	Demonstrated relevance and in somewhat creative. Includes almost all information	Minimal relevance and some attempt was made to be creative which makes it vague	Clichéd introduction which shows lack of creativity/Forgot some information	/4
NEED/ OPPORTUNITY Explain the problem or the opportunity available. Why and by whom is the product/service needed?	Chooses compelling experiences/ knowledge/examples to illustrate the relevancy of the idea/product /service by identifying the target market.	Chooses different experiences and somewhat creates a connection to develop relevancy for the idea/product/service by identifying the target market.	List different aspects but it somewhat lacks focus which does not define the need for the idea/product/ service for the identified market	List's aspects but is unable to identify the relevancy for product/service/idea for the target market. Requires improvement and focus.	/4
GOALS/ ASPIRATIONS What you hope to accomplish via the presentation.	Describes aspirations in a clear and concise manner; you are realistic and have targeted your presentation	Describes aspiration clearly, seem realistic but some attributes are downplayed or is unnecessarily wordy	Description of aspiration is moderately clear but defined goals seem unrealistic and unfocused	Aspirations are not described at all or if you have, they are unclear, unfocused and unrealistic.	/4
CLOSING How is the presentation closed?	Has a clear strategy for ending the presentation which is compelling. Follow-up steps indicate a continuation of the conversation.	Has a strategy for ending the presentation but lacks a lasting impact. Follow-up indicated hesitancy and passiveness.	The strategy for ending the pitch needs improvement as the follow up indicated is also vague.	The presentation ends abruptly without proper closing. Lack of planning shown by the participant.	/4
DELIVERY Confidence, enthusiasm, poise and energy	Great eye contact and clear voice. Makes use of tonal variation to communicate enthusiasm and confidence. Facial expressions and gestures are optimal and add to the professional outlook.	Good eye contact, clear voice was used. Enthusiasm and confidence were communicated through positive body language and tonal variation. Break in the flow seen.	Some eye contact, voice was somewhat audible and there was some enthusiasm but there was a lack of flow. Did not make use of gestures and appropriate facial expressions.	No eye contact, voice is inaudible, you lacked confidence or enthusiasm. Did not make use of positive body language or tonal variation.	/4
LENGTH Total time for the presentation	Presentation length is appropriate and ends in 90 seconds.	The presentation length needs improvement. 20 seconds over/under time.	Presentation is long and exceeds the given time. 30 seconds over/ under time.	The pitch is very long/short. 40 or more seconds above/ under time.	/4
LANGUAGE Grammar and pronunciation	No errors in pronunciation, grammar.	1-2 errors in grammar/pronunciation	3-4 errors seen in pronunciation/ grammar.	5 or more errors in pronunciation or grammar.	/4
VOCABULARY Word choice	The vocabulary choices were perfect for the pitch.	The vocabulary used is appropriate for the occasion.	Vocabulary used was ok but can be improved	Vocabulary choices need improvement.	/4

DRESS CODE (please see guidelines for what it includes)	The dress code has been followed and an appropriate attire (dress shirt, jumpers and polished dress shoes for boys and neutrals/solid color shirts with unembellished shoes and dainty jewelry if any) has been followed and the attire leaves a very professional impression.	The dress code has mostly been followed with an occasional lapse in outfit, shoes and/or neatness of hair etc. Overall the dress code gave somewhat professional impression.	The dress code has not been followed properly. The clothing is inappropriate, shoes are untidy and/or unprofessional and jarring jewellery pieces were worn.	Business casual for clothing and shoes was not followed at all. Student appeared unkempt and unprepared for a formal presentation.	/4
---	--	--	--	--	----

Bonus Marks: _____/4